

MEDIA RELEASE – Monday June 1, 2020

Looking for an amazing opportunity to lead the # 1 Angel Organization in North America? Northern Ontario Angels is hiring a new Executive Director. Apply today!

The Executive Director will report to the Northern Ontario Angels Board of Directors and is responsible for the day to day operations of employees and consultants across Northern Ontario. We are looking for a leader and communicator with senior community relations experience. Knowledge of operations, budgets, human resources, and funding applications is required. The candidate must have a strong understanding of Regional Innovation Centres. The ability to close deals with investors would be an essential asset. This position will involve extensive travel across Canada. A post-secondary degree in business and bilingualism would be an asset. The candidate must reside in Northern Ontario and will begin training with the current Executive Director starting in January 2021. For the full position summary, visit www.northernontarioangels.ca

“On behalf of the Board of Directors, Consultants and Staff of Northern Ontario Angels (NOA), I would like to thank Mary Long-Irwin, Executive Director for her outstanding passion and dedication to the success of NOA. For over 10 years she has led this organization with her team to be the #1 Angel Organization in North America. In 2019, Mary was awarded the NACO Lifetime Achievement Award. Mary will be co-training a new candidate for this position starting in January 2021, and at the end of 2021, she will remain as an International Consultant for the organization.” Chris Winrow, NOA Chair
