Dalton MacFarlane is the incoming Executive Director for Northern Ontario Angels, effective January 4, 2021. He will be shadowing Mary Long-Irwin for a few months, and she will be transitioning to be the NOA Director of International Development and continue to cover the Thunder Bay area and parts of Northwestern Ontario

Dalton totally understands the full cycle of Northern Ontario Angels, having been a successful entrepreneur, with over 10 years of experience in wealth management, economics, international and investor relations, he has managed business ventures from concept to partnership closing.

Dalton has helped many First Nation Communities across Northern Ontario in dealing with negotiations, agreements, exploration contracts, joint venture agreements, corporate structuring, community trusts, and financial management. He has extensive knowledge in the Mining and Forestry sectors relating to First Nation community consultation as well as partnership structuring and opportunities.

He has been actively engaged in corporate financial consulting and risk mitigation strategies for corporate clients, municipalities and First Nation Communities. His experience, skillset and business networks have been utilized by Economic Development Corporations, Regional Innovation Centres as well as various Boards and Corporations across the North.

After successfully expanding his financial practice, he decided to return home to his roots east of Sault Ste. Marie where he currently resides with his wife and 2 sons on a 1,100-acre farm.
